HAGUE, September 30.

'The Articles at large of the Agreement made be-
'tween the Emperor and the King of Sweden,
'are as follows.

The Agreement between his Sacred Imperial Majesty and his Sacred Swedish Majesty.

ARTICLE I.

THAT the free Exercise of Religion, granted to the Counts, Barons, Nobility, Cities, and Suburbs of the Principality of Silesia, and to all the Subjects of the same, of the Lutheran Perswasion, by the Treaty of Peace of Munster, be, according to the genuine Sense of that Treaty, in its fairest Extent, and according to the Imperial Declarations subsequent thereto, inviolably secured, as well to them, as to their Children and Posterity: and that for the future it shall not in any manner be restrain'd, or infring'd.

That whatsoever Churches and Schools shall be discover'd to have been taken from them after the Peace of Munster, and to have been given to the Roman Catholicks for the Exercise of their Religion, either in the Principality of Lignitz, Brieg, Monsterberg, and Wolau, or in the City of Breslau, and other Cities, Suburbs, and Villages, or even in the proper Domains or Lordships of his Sacred Imperial Majesty, or in the Estates of any other Roman Catholick Lords, shall be put into the same Condition they were in at the time of the said Pacification, and shall be restor'd to those of the Lutheran Religion, with all the Rights, Privileges, and Revenues belonging thereto.

The Communities, who have Churches built near the Towns of Steinau, Gauver, and Glogau, shall not only be at Liberty to maintain as many Ministers, as are necessary for the Performance of the publick Offices of Religion; but shall likewise be allow'd to recover their antient Schools for the Education of Youth, or to found new ones.

In such Places, where the Lutherans are forbidden the publick Exercise of their Religion, none shall be hinder'd from performing Religious Worship quietly in their House, or from sending their Children to Schools abroad of their own Religion, or having them taught by private Tutors at home. Nor shall they be compell'd against their Will to be present at the Worship of the Roman Catholicks, nor to make use of their Schools; nor to lend for the Roman Catholick Parish-Priests on any Occasion of Baptizing, Burying, or Administring the Communion: But every one shall be at Liberty upon any of those Occasions to go to any neighbouring Place within or without the Territory of Silesia, where the Lutheran Religion is exercis'd, paying to their own Parish-Priest the settled Customary Dues. Further, the Ministers of the Lutheran Religion shall not be hinder'd from visiting, when sent for, the Sick of their own Religion dwelling under the Jurisdiction of the Roman Catholicks; nor from attending, comforting, and administring to Prisoners or Persons condemn'd to Death.

The Nobility and others of the Roman Catholick Religion, that have Estates within the Districts of the Lutherans, shall be oblig'd to pay to the Minister of the Lutheran Parish-Church his Tythes, and other usual Emoluments.

Orphans born of Lutheran Parents, of either Sex, or of whatever Condition, shall not be committed to the Guardianship of any others than Men of their own Religion: All Orders hitherto publish'd to the contrary being hereby made null. And whereas by natural Right, Mothers claim the Tuition and Education of their Children, they shall be allow'd, when Guardians of the Lutheran Religion are not appointed by their Husbands Wills, to chuse Men of that Religion to assist them in the Guardianship.

No Person of the Lutheran Perswasion shall be oblig'd for the future to appear in any Cause of Religion before any of his Sacred Imperial Majesty's Inferiour Delegates: But it shall be lawful for them in all Cases in which Religion is concern'd, to make Application directly to his Sacred Imperial Majesty: And for that purpose, the States Professing the Lutheran Religion, shall be allow'd to keep at their own Expence Deputies at the Imperial Court.

In Causes Matrimonial, those of the Lutheran Religion shall not be subject to the Rules of the Canon-Law, nor the Decisions of Roman-Catholicks.

Further, no Churches or Schools in the Cities, Suburbs, or Villages throughout Silesia, where the Exercise of the Lutheran Religion is still retain'd, whether in the Gift of the Emperour, or of any other Catholick Patron, shall be taken away; but with their Ministers and Deacons, Rectors and Colleges, shall be Maintain'd and Protected. Likewise the Patrons of Churches shall enjoy their Right of nominating Pastors and Preceptors to vacant Churches and Schools of the Lutheran Religion; nor shall any who have such a Right of Patronage be hinder'd by the opposition of the Roman-Catholicks under any Pretext whatever: But if the Patrons either refuse or neglect to make use of their Right within the usual Time, the Congregations or Communities shall be at liberty to nominate fit Pastors of Churches or Rectors of Schools; yet without Diminution of the Right the Patron has in such Case.

The Nobility, Vassals and Subjects of the Lutheran Religion shall not be excluded from publick Offices if they are found capable of discharging them: Nor shall they be hinder'd from selling their Estates, and leaving the Country.

His sacred Imperial Majesty shall not suffer the friendly Interpositions and Intercessions of his sacred Royal

Royal Majesty of Sweden, and of the Princes and States of the Lutheran Perswasion, for the greater Freedom and Exercise of Religion, to be ineffectual.

His said sacred Imperial Majesty shall command by publick Proclamation, that what is transacted and done by this Agreement, shall be immediately put in Execution and all its Articles be perform'd: And accordingly, that they may be perform'd, he gives them the Force of a Law, not to be infring'd by any contrary Orders or Commands: He likewise consents, that the Swedish Minister residing in the Imperial Court, shall be present to see that what shall be order'd be put in Execution.

ARTICLE II.

His Sacred Imperial Majesty promises likewise, that he will confirm the Agreement, which the Chapter of Lubeck made in the Year 1647. with the House of Holstein Gottorp, to choose Bishops and Coadjutors out of that Ducal House for six Generations; and that he will Sign a solemn Act to that purpose within the space of Weeks, to be computed from the Day of the Subscription of these Presents.

He likewise promises to ratify and confirm within the same Term the Right of Primogeniture, which John Adolphus, Duke of Holstein Gottorp, introduc'd into that House by an Ordinance made the 9th of January 1608.

ARTICLE III.

Moreover, His Imperial Majesty, to shew his Affection and Good Will towards his Sacred Royal Majesty of Sweden, foregoes and declares to be remitted all Demands on Account of the Aids which the Crown of Sweden ought to furnish to the Emperour and Roman Empire for the Provinces that Crown possesses in Germany, or for any other Reason, as well for the Time past, as to the End of the present War.
